

COMMUNIQUE TO OPERATORS LICENCED UNDER SECTION 24 OF THE ICT ACT 2001

Information and Communication Technologies Authority

The ICT Authority has decided to postpone the implementation of the Minimum Termination Rate determined by way of TD2 of 2008, subject to any amendment to be made thereto, for a period of at most 30 days, pending the imminent implementation of the Universal Service Fund (USF).

You will be communicated with the new date of the coming into operation of the TD2 of 2008 as well as of the USF in accordance with section 21 of the ICT Act 2001.

3 September 2008
