

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGIES AUTHORITY

COMMUNIQUE

Guidelines on the importation and commercialization of Consumer Grade ICT equipment

The Information and Communication Technologies Authority has issued a set of Guidelines on the importation and commercialization of refurbished Consumer Grade ICT equipment.

The Guidelines are being issued pursuant to Section 17(3) and in line with Section 18(n) of the ICT Act which provides that the ICT Authority, 'ensure the safety and quality of every information and communication services including telecommunication service and, for that purpose, determine technical standards for telecommunication network, the connection of customer equipment to telecommunication networks'.

Licensed Dealers and ICT consumers are invited to view the published Guidelines in full on the website of the Authority under the section Guidelines and Decisions: https://www.icta.mu/documents/2021/11/guidelines_refurbished_ICT_equipment_oct2021.pdf

The ICT Authority underlines that these Guidelines may be reviewed from time to time.

www.icta.mu

Date: 8 October 2021